OUR STORY

Founded in 1905 by Alonzo F. Herndon, a formerly enslaved man, Atlanta Life Insurance Company stands as the last Black-founded and owned insurer in the U.S. Initiated to address financial challenges faced by families unable to afford proper burials for their loved ones, it evolved into a symbol of protection and vehicle for generational security and career opportunities. Today, ALIC continues its legacy as a thriving Group reinsurance business.

With a focus on reinforcing group insurance benefits, Atlanta Life offers cost-effective solutions that contribute to significant savings for organizations, ensuring comprehensive coverage for employees or members.
